ATPL MODULAR COURSE - AEROPLANES

If you want to get an Airline Transport Pilot License (ATPL) for airplanes by taking a modular course, you need to:

Have at least a Private Pilot License (PPL) for airplanes that follows international rules, and complete a certain number of hours of classroom learning:

- (a) If you have a PPL: 650 hours
- (b) If you have a Commercial Pilot License (CPL): 400 hours
- (c) If you have an Instrument Rating (IR): 500 hours
- (d) If you have both a CPL and an IR: 250 hours

You must finish all the classroom learning before taking the theoretical exams for your ATPL.
